

Clinging To The “Mark” We’ve Chosen

When we were children, we clung tightly to the adults and role models that gave us the security that we found the most refuge and comfort in, correct? I often tell folks at this point to imagine how a toddler runs and clings to their father’s leg in a public place when a stranger should suddenly make them nervous or timid. This much more “trusted” individual is usually whoever had raised us and had nurtured us into such a state of complete confidence with them. But here’s the rub: Have we grown into a similar, but (of course) more “deceived” state of false security with “the beast”, holding on to the wrong spiritual pant leg in our adult life?

While some are clinging on to dear life to this false sense of security that we might refer to here as “government god”, others of us have seen through the smoke and mirrors of this mask that has been placed on the satanic realm and therefore now run and cling to our true God of hope and His system of provision, wanting nothing at all to do with satan’s make believe provision system.

So yes, some of us are awakening to the clever role reversal that we have been tricked into by those of satan who have defiled the world, and have energetically therefore begun a serious regiment of re-purifying our hearts and minds back to the ways that true believers are supposed to be walking, expecting that soon the Messiah will be here to dry the eyes of those who have “diligently sought him” and have then faithfully “followed the lamb whithersoever He goeth”, to not lose sight of Him any further.

These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth (reform their lives as they learn). These were redeemed ^{G59} from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

\(Revelation 14:4\)

Yet even while the wiser of us have stopped what we were doing to see what was happening to our world and have begun to remove ourselves from the false “slave state” that satan has lured many of us into, the spiritually lukewarm are yet tragically tied to this beast, weeping and gnashing their teeth, clinging to dear life in their increasingly hopeless world. But millions do not know that they are clinging to a life that, by its artificial inverted trusts, is set for an eternal death:

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour." -John 12:24-26

The Savior calls us to walk in the same purity of faith that His own sacrifice had displayed. We're not to just talk about who's kingdom we say we serve, but to publicly live that "trust" as well.

This is the "forehead and hand" reference in Scripture, or as some might call it, "think and do accordingly": One must first inwardly embrace which kingdom they will hold on to, then outwardly profess that trust unashamedly to all the world. Today, loyalties are outwardly affirmed with the "mark" of one's hand.... a signature.

Your 'act' when being persuaded to "make your mark" on a beast covenant, publicly authenticates whom you lay your trust in, both lawfully to the Father, and legally to satan and his agents.

Who are we "representatives" of then? Are we proud card-carrying members of the beast's system? ...or, are we unashamed faith-displaying ('trust'-displaying) ambassadors of YHWH, thereby being proper living examples for the Father's system of law, justice, and provision?

Would this type of publicly-recorded dedication not be sin, to be "signed" into satan's system of provision, being not unlike how many 'churches' have been receiving "special privileges" being "signed" into Caesar's 501c3 covenants?

Is this not the "gain of oppressions" warned about in Isaiah 33:15?

HOW IMPORTANT is it to be a "living, breathing" man, and not a beast-created "person" or "strawman" for the state, where we might wisely bury the old man who was among the world's "willfully ignorant" (walking dead), to become a true representative promoting Father's kingdom?

"And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. Yeshua said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom (government) of God." Luke 9:59-60

"...depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of YHWH, and you yourselves thrust out." (Luke 13:27-28)

Your inward "mark" therefore, comes from the part of you where you think things like this through, or... your forehead. And this inward decision could reflect either one's fear of man or one's faith in YHWH. (It can't be both).

"Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?" (Romans 6:16)

"No man can serve two masters. " (Matthew 6:24 & Luke 16:13)

A growing number of us now know that Yeshua is readying His true faithful for His coming rescue ! But for now, this wrath is presently "separating the men from the boys" so to speak, thus "proving" us, just as YHWH did with those at Mount Sinai.

Who's side will we be found true ambassadors for? ...especially now knowing as we so clearly do here that there is no "neutral ground" between the two kingdoms?

For those who are not yet convinced that these things are so, let's be as cautious as the Bereans, and study not just the Scriptures, but wisely even the enemy's law books as well, to make sure that we know what we are up against...

"And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth^{G2983} the mark^{G5480} of his name." (Revelation 14:11)

“RECEIVE”

Strong's Greek dictionary:

^{G2983}

lam-ban'-o

... to take (in very many applications, literally and figuratively [probably objective or active, to get hold of, to have offered to one]): - accept, attain, hold, obtain, receive.

"MARK"

Strong's Greek dictionary:

^{G5480}

charagma khar'-ag-mah

From the same as ^{G5482}; a scratch or etching, that is, stamp (as a badge of servitude [as in "slave"? -dwaine]): mark.

It's a "badge" ?

Are not some identification cards even called I.D. "badges" in many cases today?

But that was just for starters. Let's look at a string of Black's law dictionary terms from their 1st edition of 1891:

We begin with the root word for "sign", "signature", etc, following with other derivatives:

SIGLA. Lat. In Roman Law. Marks or signs of abbreviation used in writing. Cod. 1, 17, 11, 13.

SIGN. To affix one's name to a writing or instrument, for the purpose of authenticating it, or to give it effect as one's act.

To "sign" is merely to write one's name on paper, or declare assent or attestation by some sign or mark, and does not, like "subscribe," require that one should write at the bottom of the instrument signed. 6 N. Y. 9, 13; 4 Edw. 102 [in other words, the name can be "signed" anywhere on the paper, not particularly at the bottom or end of the paper -dwaine]

Reference (also from Black's Law Dictionary):

SUBSCRIBE. In the law of contracts. To write under: to write the name under; to write the name at the bottom or end of a writing. 45 Ind. 213; 26 Wend. 341.

SIGN-MANUAL. In English Law. The signature or subscription of the king is termed his "sign-manual." There is this difference between what the sovereign does under the sign manual and what he or she does under the great seal, viz., that the former is done as a personal act of the sovereign; the latter as an act of state. Brown.

SIGNATORIUS ANNULUS. Lat. In the civil law. A signet-ring; a seal-ring. Dig. 50, 16, 74.

SIGNATURE. In ecclesiastical law. The name of a sort of rescript, without seal, containing the supplication, the signature of the pope or his delegate, and the grant of a pardon.

In contracts. The act of writing one's name upon a deed, note, contract, or other instrument, either to identify or authenticate it, or to give it validity as one's own act. The name so written is also called a "signature."

SIGNET. A seal commonly used for the sign manual of the sovereign. Wharton. The signet is also used for the purpose of civil justice in Scotland. Bell.

SIGNIFICATION. In French law. The notice given of a decree, sentence, or other judicial act.

SIGNING JUDGMENT. In English practice. The signature or allowance of the proper officer of a court, obtained by the party entitled to judgment in an action, expressing generally that judgment is given in his favor, and which stands in the place of its actual delivery by the judges themselves. Steph. Pl. 110, 110.

In American practice. Signing judgment means a signing of the judgment record itself, which is done by the proper officer, on the margin of the record, opposite the entry of the judgment. 1 Burrill, Pr. 268.

SIGNUM. Lat. In the Roman and civil law. A sign; a mark; a seal. The seal of an instrument. Calvin.

A species of proof. By "signa" were meant those species of indicia which come more immediately under the cognizance of the senses; such as stains of blood on the person of the accused. Best, Pres. 13, note f.

Do any of these many definitions not show, line after line, example after example, just how important one's "signature" is in satan's scheme of enslavement? ...shouldn't we ask ourselves why they have gone to such great lengths to not just 'lock us in' legally, but to then also make sure we are not taught this in our schools, the imitation churches, etc?

But that is not the end of it my friends, they are trying to further distract us away from this "legalese snare" by getting us to look off into the future at a wooden duck that this "legal" self-bondage [willful selling of ourselves] hasn't even taken place yet, and here's the way they are distracting folks away from seeing their present indicia attachments to the beast as being "official":

Is the new electronic "chip" really the proverbial "mark of the beast" as many churches and talking heads are trying to convince us today?

As I have been preaching and trying to set the alternate example to others myself for a good many years now, if folks are still a willful part of their system, then they are effectually "legally" marked, bonded and already claimed as "beast property" (if you will), having given satan's agents our signatures of loyalty long ago, even if having done so under the guise of deception or (as we teach here) under "metonymy" (wordcraft). The chip is just additional window dressing at best. And as a side note here, keep in mind that we are to "suffer our own hurt" as Pastor Wright so eloquently puts it when explaining how Joshua was deceived in Joshua chapter 9, where I might add, that if we now seek the Father's counsel, we could foresee ably turn our enemies around, making them our footstool, just as takes place in the ending of that same chapter where I suggest we read that chapter and keep it in mind my brethren.)

A growing number who have a serious love for YHWH and His system of Law and Order are already aware of this deception now, and in their hearts are thereby refusing to be a part of this exposed evil system, while many who are still trapped in this system are opting to stay with the parts of the beast that they feel are more secure than the provisions that could be afforded them by their Father in heaven, hoping that things will somehow get better so they won't have to make this drastic step of faith. They fear taking such "leaps of faith" due to the snares that may tighten on them should they attempt to do so. But then... is that really "the Faith of Yeshua"?

"Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Yeshua."

(Revelation 14:12)

Such folks are also simultaneously [and foolishly] expecting the heathen system to continue to provide their present securities for them, even as the nation crumbles and these increasing times of Father's wrath get worse—a wrath that is coming by the way, because we won't let go of our "golden calf" and are thereby far too attached to this pagan system in the first place, justifying the Father's angers all the more. What happened to those who held on to their golden calf in the days of Moses? —we can't seem to let go of the "things we presently trust in", but then think that YHWH is going to somehow save us from the ones whose legs we "cling to" at the same time. How does this make any sense?

But I digress. Let's get back to the chip:

Did the ruling class need a chip back in 1164 when the pope had also sent out the Synod of Toulouse that had seriously persecuted folks in a similar way, keeping them from "buying and selling" with their pagan neighbors? No of course not, as they didn't have chips back then. It was merely their best devised way of separating satan's obedient slaves from YHWH's loyal believers back in those days as well, so that they could be easily recognized and persecuted, USING A TRUE BELIEVER'S OWN STANCE OF FAITH as an identifier of where their loyalties were grounded, as satan can not otherwise see who is truly faithful to YHWH without such a "test of faith". So no chip is needed, as a true believer will simply publicly profess his or her loyalties without shame.

This 12th century “test of faith” is no different the system that is in place today, being just a cleverly legislated separator designed to “test one’s faith” and thereby flush out and persecute those who (like some of us), seeing the evil in these “covenants”, refuse to be even a miniscule part of receiving such “privileges and perks” knowing, as Nehemiah did, that it would only anger YHWH to touch any "gains of oppression" (see New American Puritan Bible Study videos #'s 2- 5 at www.bcmin.us).

John the Baptist was a great example of how we are to live as simply as possible, living every day by an unwavering “trust” in one’s chosen Savior, teaching the multitudes to "come out from among them" himself standing pure as "one crying in the wilderness" living on the simplest of things by faith, of whom Yeshua said "Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist". (see Matthew 11:11).

John Baptised with the waters of the Jordan. Could we not equate the tossing away of our government-got “bennies” as a wonderfully cleansing, modern-day act of Baptism, burying the old man that trusted in the things of this world?

Those who do not want to "come out from among them", giving reasons for their loyalties to the beast, let them lag behind, letting the dead bury their dead.

Expecting that the implantable "chip" is going to be the magical turning point of some kind is actually playing right into the elitists' hands because, as we have just shown, there is already a mountain of both lawful and legal ties in the social security number, our signed "applications", etc, that the chip would only be like putting a ring in the nose of cattle that are already branded.

or, it's like showing folks the keys to the car that you already signed the automobile loan papers for, believing that those keys are what shows your attachment. The keys mean nothing, except to a would-be burglar! It's the “signed papers” that will stand up in court, not the keys. The keys just help the owner to control their purchase. The chip is just as immaterial in that regard my friends!

The chip is just here to replace the various outmoded police surveillance systems that are no longer as efficient for rounding up, confining, and controlling their cattle.

But why do we fear these “kings” that we have foolishly “attached ourselves to” in such a drawn-in love/hate relationship with? We need to look deep inside ourselves and consider who it is that we are now “clinging to”, having attached ourselves to them by accepting them as if they were a true authority over our lives...

"Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity. For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb. Trust in YHWH, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. ...

... Delight thyself also in YHWH; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart. Commit thy way unto YHWH; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass. And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday. Rest in YHWH, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass. Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil. For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon YHWH, they shall inherit the earth. For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be. But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace. The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth." (Psalms 37:1-12)

He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the LORD'S, and he hath set the world upon them. (1 Samuel 2:8)

Notice the part of our earlier Bible passage that said,

"These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth, These were redeemed ^{G59} from among men", and then consider these passages:

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee. Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

(Isaiah 55:1-8)

So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

(Revelation 3:16-22)

There will never be an angel come to your door asking you for money to be redeemed. But we will run to and fro looking for the monies to be redeemed by the beast system. Why do we do this? Why are we so desperately clinging to the leg of a system that ever-increasingly enslaves us for our monies? Why not cling to a kingdom that requires that we merely accept that we should be cooperating with our brethren in the world's most perfect system? Why are we dragging our feet, when just as my toddler example, we could be running to the security of the Father's leg to cling fast to that wonderful way of life?

But when will that time to choose who we will cling to, come to a screeching halt? Which "system" will we be found clinging to when the time to choose has run out?

Will you be found weeping and gnashing your teeth, fearing to leave your oppressors?

...or will you be joyously "coming far out from among them" to "sin no more", latching on to your Father's pant leg with all your strength, promoting by faith, a true King and kingdom? Do we not want to be found worthy as a true child of Him that will inherit the earth? Why do we continue in the sin of clinging to the wrong god of providence?

And no, its not easy right now, but that is the test of faith we have been given. "The just shall live by faith", agreed? We must decide in our foreheads whether the words of His coming promises are worth our present suffering or not, and if so, unashamedly profess the gospel of the kingdom as commissioned, by the things that we say and do, where the acts of our hands show a true faith to all that we meet. We are to stand in undefiled purity apart from those who do evil in this world, waiting on Him without wavering, and enduring all things till He arrives, as the heathen have their glory now. Our glory comes in the life that we showed a true belief in.

The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

(Romans 8:16-17)

For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon YHWH, they shall inherit the earth.

(Psalms 37:9)

Some additional notes of interest:

I had received an email from a long time friend, William Raymond entitled "I Won't Take the Mark" where he had been inspired to write that original emailed article after having heard Katherine Albrecht on the radio promoting her thoughts on the mark of the beast, where she often promotes "the mark of the beast" as being the implantable chip that is coming.

He was encouraged by some of what she had said, but had not expressed himself with clarity when releasing his email, where I, and a few other friends then sent him emails of additional offered thought, that then resulted in this response email from him to his base, of which I feel he assembled and worded so well, that I am including it here in its entirety for my friends now as well:

From: William Raymond

I Won't Take the Mark... Oh really?

Boy!... did I ever get an ear full back on this one! Actually, that's a good thing. And also what is good is that I take a few minutes here to provide some necessary thought provoking clarification which, I am quite certain, few will be able to accept. Just the same, please hear me out.

I suppose the main thing I should address was something brought to my attention in an email I got from a brother responding to my I Won't Take the Mark email, who told me this.

Now assuming the premise of the futurism of Revelation is accurate, from which Miss/Mrs. Albrecht has written her "children's" book titled: "I Won't Take the Mark", what can you do in life without a Social Security Number? I know it isn't 666 but how many children whether Christian or not, do NOT have a Social Security Number? How many people within the United States who have a bank account to "buy and sell" from, do NOT have a Social Security Number? What documents are required to obtain a SSN? Perhaps a "Birth" Certificate? Why is that necessary for Christians? Why do Christians already possess the "Mark of the Beast"? Miss/Mrs. Albrecht CANNOT receive compensation from the publisher of her "children's" book without the "Mark of the Beast" can she? As a matter of fact, seems like every institution dealing in "money" requires participants to have a "Mark of the Beast".

Still, I believe there's merit to the idea of a children's book teaching about the mark of the Beast so long as the book doesn't mislead anyone to believe the mark is limited to things yet to come in the future; for obviously, the system and mark(s) of the Beast are here now. If you can't see that, I can only pray the Spirit of God will very soon open your eyes to this inescapable reality.

When I responded to my friend's email I told him he was right and that I believe we all have been impressed with "a" mark of the Beast, in one form or another. However, my understanding of the Character and Nature of our Blessed Redeemer, Christ Jesus, leads me to believe the bigger question here is, not so much with regards to the mark(s) imposed upon us but rather, what are we going to do when we become aware of this reality? Specifically, what am I doing personally, right now, as a witness and testimony to my faith in Christ alone as my Sovereign Lord and God to demonstrate to the world that I am opposed to the Beast's lordship and that I am actively striving to divest myself, one by one, of all these encumbrances or marks of indicia which stand against me in both the courts of man and God?

In law, any indicator that links one to the forum state is known as a mark of indicia or simply indicia, or sometimes called minimum contact. In Black's Law Dictionary it states, "The term (indicia) is much used in the civil law in a sense nearly or entirely synonymous with circumstantial evidence". In any dealings you may have with the court system, indicia or minimum contact is the first thing they look for and is one of the key elements necessary in establishing the courts jurisdiction over you (i.e., jurisdiction in personam) - and the subject matter itself (i.e., jurisdiction of the subject matter). Usually, courts are very careful to be as "specifically related" to the particular indicia or minimum contact they chose to recognize in order to establish as strong an attachment to you as they can. For instance, if you have provided when asked a drivers license with your name on it to the police or court clerk, you have supplied them a very strong indicia and basis for their jurisdiction over you.

Whenever we refer to the system and mark(s) of the Beast, we're also referring to the Beast state government as it exists (latent or active) in every nation - for they are one and the same. Therefore, all and any marks of indicia connecting one to the forum state are the very same marks of the Beast of Revelation - for they also are one and the same. Any number of seemingly innocuous attachments such as a drivers license, a vehicle registration, a voter registration card, a Social Security Card, a government healthcare card, even a mortgage or deed to property: any such document having a name thereupon to which you answer, means you bear "a" mark of the Beast... plain and simple! And if, somehow, you have managed to avoid all of those and have a bank account through which you transact Federal Reserve Notes, well my friend... there's your mark!

And of course, if your pastor and church have committed the ultimate act of treason by incorporating Christ under the state as a 501(C) (3) or even a 508, all such bodies as legal fictions under the law, have undeniably been impressed with a most clear legal indicia, and therefore a mark of the Beast.

And here's the nail in the coffin: - Sorry folks!... I didn't create this system, I'm just telling you how it works (something your pastor or lawyer won't tell you). Ever since The Interstate Commerce Act of 1887, all business conducted in the corporate U.S. is deemed as "commercial activity" and therefore declared to be under the jurisdiction of the state. And so even a website bearing a ".com" designation (.com being an abbreviation for commercial) can be - if the court choose to use it - interpreted as your ensign declaring, via the world-wide web, that you are engaged in commerce.

The purpose of all this is only to show you that EVERYONE has, in one form or another, been impressed with a mark of the Beast. You can lie to yourself and deny it, or you can repent and do something about it. The choice is yours. If you disagree with this reality, I challenge you to send me a brief response (please note I said brief) and show us how you have managed to maintain sinless (unencumbered to the world) in this regard.

But here's the good news: "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death."

(Romans 8:1 & 2). As I alluded to earlier, what's ultimately more important here than the fact we are all captive to the Beast via one (sin) mark of indicia or the other, is the question of what we plan to do about it once we accept the truth. And so, if you are proactively open to the Spirit and seeking ways (Christ is the Way) to divest yourself of the encumbrances (sins) you've been born into, His grace is sufficient for you as you "work out your own salvation". Yes, it's a massive undertaking but remember, the journey of a thousand miles begins with the first step.

Conversely, if you chose to deny this twofold legal/spiritual reality and these truths I've been given to share with you, then you're already dead (sealed) in your sins and trespasses (your indicia and attachments to the Beast). For it is Written, "If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. (I John 1:8).

As I've already said before, it's clear to me that the system with various marks of the Beast are well entrenched all around us. If you can't see it, I just don't know what else to say! And so, as always, my prayers of faith go out for all who receive my messages, that they will hear these truths with their hearts and prepare for the times ahead as we occupy till He comes.

Peace, vision and protection to all who seek the Kingdom,

Dwaine,

I thought you would be interested in this exchange.

Others have also made sure Baldwin received my reply.

Dear _____,

Amen!

How truly wonderful it would be for Pastor Baldwin to join us at the front lines (see "5 Reasons the Constitution is Our Cutting-Edge Issue" at <http://www.bibleversusconstitution.org/>). He has a lot invested. So did Paul in the Phariseism of his day.

For King and kingdom,

Ted

P.S. Chuck, although you may view me as such, I'm not your enemy. I hope someday we might be able to work together for the King and HIS KINGDOM!

Dear brothers in Christ Jesus,

I read Chuck's letter and I read Ted's open letter in response...

You both are very valuable to the leadership of the church in America in my opinion and my prayer is that we come to the revelation of our mistakes and the mistakes (sins) or our forefathers. Years ago I wrote several emails to Chuck about the evils of 501c3 and by YHWH's grace he has come to see clearly the sin of 501c3 organizations.

I am no great leader or have any special titles or accomplishments, but I have studied YHWH's Law and man's law quite a bit since 1993 when the Lord led me to give up a Socialism Slave Number (SSN). I read quite a bit from the research done by our three brothers in California at the Christian Jural Society who with some faults produced some incredibly valuable work that I will give an example at the end.

Despite the fact that there might be some fine points in favor of the Constitution, the body as a whole is anti-Christ and I commend brother Ted for the books that he was led to write on the subject.

It is really quite easy to see how a sin/ mistake/ or non-qualification in the 1st Amendment's "freedom of religion" is capable of the destruction of Christianity in America. We now have a government that protects a religion, Islam, that is Hell bent on the destruction of all other religions and especially Christianity. So, the framers made some errors in clarification at the very least.

It is now my prayer that Chuck will cease to promote the Constitution and seek to implement YHWH's Law on this land He gave to us.

In reality, the Constitution is gone and has been gone since 1861 never to be revived (see note #1 below). Sine the Constitution is NOT in effect, then there is no law against a Kenyan born communist muslim homosexual mulatto to hold the office of president! The reverence of this document called the Constitution by most Christians reminds me of YHWH's words...

Isaiah 64:6

But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

So, I stand as a witness that the federal Constitution was the beginning of th end and Lincoln finished off the Constitution and now both sides have used executive orders to be alternate dictators for 4-8 years. Now the Esau/ edomites have gained complete control and are waging war against Jacob's descendents.

The good news is that we possess the duty and obligation to re-establish YHWH's Law on this land through legal means and proper notification of the formation of ecclesiastical courts with judges chosen by YHWH through the revelation of His people. Amen?!

"Any law contrary to the Law of God, is no law at all." Sir William Blackstone

God's Laws - "Man's laws are strengthless before God's laws, consequently a human law, directly contrary to the law of God, would be an absolute nullity." Borden vs. State, 11 Ark 519, 526 (1851).

Are We in a State of War?

The first Executive Order (#1) was issued by President Abraham Lincoln, and it brought martial law (military law) into America because of the War Between the States. It has never been repealed and is still in effect.

"A majority of the people of the United States have lived all of their lives under emergency rule...And, in the United States, actions taken by the Government in time of great crisis have, from at least the Civil War, in important ways, shaped the present phenomenon of a permanent state of national emergency". Congressional Report No. 93-549, 93rd Congress, 1st Session, Emergency Statutes: Provisions of Federal Law now in Effect Delegating to the Executive Extraordinary Authority in Time of National Emergency, page 1, November 19, 1973, pursuant to Senate Res. 9, pub. By the U.S. Gov. Printing Office, Wash D.C.

According to the Supreme Court, "Congress has made little or no distinction between a state of national emergency and a state of war." Brown vs. Bernstein, D.C. pa., 49 F. Supp. 728, 732.

According to the Law of Nations, "the most immediate effect of a state of war is that it activates the Law of War itself."

And according to the Law of War, "martial law is obtained during a state of war and in truth and reality, is no law at all."

Since martial law is no law at all, they are lawless. Thus, they cannot bring a Lawful minister of Christ into its courts, since he stands on God's Law. This is why the government cannot bring anyone into their courts using their lawfully spelled Godly name, and must convert it into a fictitious name. The United States is at war with its people, and to get jurisdiction over them, the government must convert them into something lawless, like 'corporations' and 'persons' for example. Governments only have jurisdiction over the lawless, and that's why they try to convert the bondmen of Christ into lawless entities by getting them to incorporate themselves, or by getting them to accept the marks of corporations, by making us sign contracts with them.

In the early 1930's, President Roosevelt extended 'emergency powers' by Executive Order and declared all citizens of the United States, living in the States, enemies of the United States. This was done by the simple act of changing only one word in the "Trading with the Enemy Act" of 1917. He changed the word 'without' the United States, to 'within' the United States. Congress rubber-stamped Executive Order numbers 2039 and 2040 into law without debate.

Military Flags indicate Military Rule

When you walk into any court today, you will see a gold-fringed flag. This flag is placed on a flagstaff, and the flagstaff head (the decorative ornament at the top of the flagstaff) is an image of an Eagle. What does such a flag signify? First, we will examine the yellow fringe. The answer is found in Eisenhower's Executive Order (#10843, August 21, 1959), the Code of Federal Regulations (at 24 C.F.R. 6865), & current law:

"... A military flag is a flag that resembles the regular flag of the United States, except that it has a Yellow Fringe border on three sides. The President of the United States designates this deviation from the regular flag, by executive order, and by his capacity as Commander-in-chief of the Armed Forces." 4 U.S.C., Chapter 1, Sections 1,2, and 3; Executive order No.10834.

"Placing of fringe on national flag...are within the discretion of the President as Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy." 34 Ops. Attorney General, 483 (1925).

And the continued use of a yellow fringed flag is prescribed in current Army regulations:

"...the Flag is trimmed on three sides with golden yellow fringe, 2 1/2 inches wide. The [military] flag of the United States is authorized for indoor display for...each military installation....each military courtroom. " United States Army Regulations, AR 840-10, Chapter 2, October 1, 1979.

A yellow fringe flag always indicates a military flag!

As far as the flagstaff head finial being an eagle, the answer to what this means is in the United States Army Regulations, AR 840-10, Chapter 8, § 2(a)(1), October 1, 1979. When an Eagle is placed at the top of the flagstaff, it indicates, "Eagle - Presidential Flagstaff."

Dear reader, the president is the Commander in Chief of the military. If the flag of the Commander in Chief is flown in all court rooms today, this proves that the law of that court is under the Commander in Chief! Which, again, confirms military law!

So why does this military flag fly in all Federal, State, County, and City courtrooms if they are not military courtrooms? The truth is, all government courts today are military courts. They sit in summary court martial proceedings against civilians, and are governed by the Manual for Courts-Martial. Just to clarify the question as to whether or not the people of the United States are considered alien enemies of the United States and subject to military courts, read the definition of "Enemy" in the above manual.

Enemy: "Enemy" includes organized forces of the enemy in time of war, any hostile body that our forces may be opposing, such as a rebellious mob or a band of renegades, and includes civilians as well as members of military organizations. "Enemy" is not restricted to the enemy government or its armed forces. All the citizens of one belligerent are enemies of the government and all the citizens of the other. Manual for Courts-Martial," U.S., 1994 Ed., at Art.99, (c)(1)(b), page IV-34, PIN 030567-0000, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington D.C.

The Constitution doesn't apply in courts today, and governments can take a citizen's property without permission or due process of law, like they do under the current 'forfeiture laws,' because of the following law:

"When a citizen is arraigned before a military commission on a criminal charge he is no longer under the protection of the law, nor surrounded with those safeguards which are provided in the Constitution. The accused may be sentenced to death, and the sentence may be executed without a judge. A sentence which forfeits all the property of the accused requires no approval." 12 Op. Attorney General 182 (1867).

Does anyone want their day in 'court' now? Even the Scripture specifically says that we are not to go to courts of "law before the unjust" nor "before the unbelievers" (1 Corinthians 6:1,6). The reason is because we are to separate ourselves from the unjust. How incredible that the just should go before the unjust for justice!

Let's see where military law comes from. Read these two definitions from Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988.

Mars: "God of war." Page 829.

Martial Law: Temporary rule by the military authorities over the civilian population when civil authority has broken down." Page 830.

Now, what is the connection between military courts and contracts? This is the clincher!

"In maritime law: it is the law of that nation or country whose flag is flown. On a ship or government office or in a courtroom or wherever it is displayed gives notice by this flag to all who enter into contracts with the master that he intends the law of that flag to regulate such contracts, and that they must either submit to its operation or not contract with him." Black's law dictionary, 4th Ed., under ..flag, law of.

When a military flag is placed somewhere, it is giving notice to all who enter that all contracts within that place are governed by military law! And we have the choice of binding ourselves to that law, or to not contract with them.

Police enforce these military contracts, such as drivers licenses and registration contracts. A military flag flies in all drivers license buildings. Police happen to be all military, which is why they use military designations in all of their positions, such as Captain, Lieutenant, Sergeant, Colonel, etc. You might ask, "Can someone be part of a police department and still be a servant of Christ?" Well, is the policeman there as a minister of God to thee for good, or is he there for the benefit of the state and to meet a quota? If he's there as a minister of God, and you're doing the Will of God, and he sees that in you, he won't write out the ticket. He won't do anything that will violate the Word of God because he himself recognizes a brother doing the Will of the Father. But if he's an ungodly man he will write out the ticket and will basically say, "I'll let the judge sort all this out". Which means he didn't recognize the Truth when it was brought to him. His faith was in the State, not in the Word of God. His god is the god of war...Mars.

P.S.

Constitution - "We are under a Constitution, but the Constitution is what the judges say it is." Charles Evans Hughes, Supreme Court Justice, in Dictionary of American Maxims (1955), p. 88.

Constitution - "While the union survived the civil war, the Constitution did not." First black Supreme Court Justice, Thurgood Marshall, delivered in a bicentennial speech at Maui, Hawaii on 6 May 1987.

Constitution - "The 'original republic', the one for which our forefathers fought face to face, hand to hand, exists only in the minds of academics and fundamentalist patriots. The republic created in 1789 is long gone. It died with the 600,000 Americans killed in the Civil War." Columbia Law Professor George P. Fletcher in the June 23rd, 1997 issue of 'The New Republic', page 14.

The Constitution is suspended (has no effect) during a time of war: "There is no limit to the powers that may be exerted in such cases save those which are found in the laws and usages of war....In such cases the laws of war (no law at all) take the place of the Constitution and the laws of the United States as applied in time of peace" (New Orleans v. Steamship Co., 20 Wall. 394)
