

The Great Winepress of the Wrath of YHWH

“Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of YHWH cometh, for it is nigh at hand; A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness,” (Joel 2:1,2)

The great day of YHWH is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of YHWH: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced (“fortified” NKJ) cities, and against the high towers. (Zephaniah 1:14-16)

No one disagrees that the times are extremely dark upon the whole of the earth. We can also see that chaos is beginning to break out in ways that man has never seen, where the increasing death, destruction and overall darkness should be sending even the most serious atheist among us into a book store to buy a Bible! Yet having certainly tried to best utilize that terrifying darkness in order to hopefully coax a few lost souls out of today's foretold “valley of decision” (Joel 3:13,14) and into trusting the better of two warring kingdoms, the quiet “thief in the night” return of the Messiah in marking His people seems to be taking place or is perhaps even near completion (Eze. 9:1-6; for more on this see our book “Last Call”). Yet all who fearfully prefer staying in that lukewarm “valley of decision” or valley of false security (an imaginary “neutral zone” between two mountains [kingdoms]) will instead find themselves tragically spewn out (Rev. 3:16)

Yeshua is therefore now readying to gather His very last gleaning of olive berries (saints) from the outermost reaches of the world (Isa. 17:4), gathering the very last grains of wheat into barns (Matt. 13:30) to be protected from YHWH's bonfire that is otherwise set aside for the chaff.

All is in place. All necessary prophecy has been fulfilled, which for thousands of years, had been amply given as loving warnings to call sinners to the purity of repentance, and well before the last day's judgments. Yet when knowing that even the Messiah was not given the exact day or hour, the truth has yet come to such great light now for some of us, that it's clear that nothing lies in the way of that great and dreadful day of YHWH.

With all previously foretold sins of perversion now also obnoxiously crowding Father's righteous out of any place of honor in our world, the prophetic picture even makes a convincing argument that it may even be past due for the decree to go forth (if it hasn't already), the final decree itself appearing in Scripture at the very end of the Father's Sacred Book, just one verse before the Messiah's promise to come quickly:

“He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.” (Rev. 22:11)

Have we not seen countless people everywhere walking around as if they no longer have the ability to think for themselves or change how they feel, etc? Some of us more “awake” older folks have clearly seen a big change over the years in how people are becoming more and more like literal zombies under some kind of trance, glued to their cell phones and television shows, stuck in their “strong delusions” (2Thess. 2:11). Is it too late for them? And are the few faithful of us the only ones alert enough to then wisely avoid the levels of entrancement that they are going back to day in and day out, ourselves staying far and away from those brainwashing machines? ...thus the passage is actually being fulfilled as we speak? Nonetheless...

The unjust (those “acting contrary to the standard of right established by the divine law”; Webster's 1828 dictionary) and the wicked (those who “fall away; deviating from the divine law”; ibid ) have been given more than enough time to address their sins and repent, but unbelievably huge numbers have today chosen to hide from these truths in their endless entertainment addictions and may now lose their souls altogether at the last. They have been gently called to, piped to, and wooed. They have been coaxed, encouraged, cried to, begged, and outright warned. They have ignored all various pleas to hear the dangers they were in and save themselves and have instead turned away their ears from the truth and have turned themselves unto fables, seeking out the slickest of teachers wanting desperately to hear smooth things, having itching ears (Isaiah 30:10; 2 Tim. 4:3,4) that only further contributes to the great falling away, which is now at a level that has also never before been seen in man's history, albeit the stubborn consensus seekers that often make up the lukewarm will deny these low numbers of righteous people, out of a most terrifying fear that they will not be counted among such low numbers (as did the multitudes in Noah's day(?)) Yet, had their fear truly been a genuine one, but in the fear of the Father's greatness and power (and not just a surface tension either that merely annoyed or interrupted a hidden grip on their sins) they would yes, have repented, so it stands to reason that their chastening was obviously not yet severe enough if they are still standing in easily shown sin in Scripture, thus sadly, the need for an all out wrath may be in order, that their coming punishment might be an enduring reminder to bystanders for all eternity, to never forget what the ultimate fear of the soul should really be founded upon: ...the wrath of YHWH!

Many refuse to accept the fact that they must heed the Father's law system and actually step away from all of the comforts that the serpent has tempted them all with. They like the forbidden fruit of oppressing their neighbors, they like the forbidden fruit of snubbing their noses at the laws, statutes, and judgments of the God that gave them life. They say that it would be too tough to discipline themselves into such rigid laws. Well, they've all learned to routinely stop at all stop signs, use turn signals, pay their ungodly taxes, pay their "propaganda feeding tube" bills (satellite TV bills), make hefty car gambling wagers (car insurance), and yet for them to think of letting go of the membership cards that gives power to the beast to increasingly oppress their neighbor, well, that would be something that would be impossible to get used to, right? These people think that God will punish the elite for having "made us" do these things and sign these papers, but guess what!? The elite even had this part planned and its even foretold in prophecy! Look at Jeremiah 50:7, where the elite overlords are recorded saying, “We offend not. Because they [our freely signed VOLUNTEER slaves] have sinned against YHWH (having signed up not by our force, but voluntarily, thus sinning against their own God in having unequally yoked themselves to us), the habitation of justice, even YHWH, the hope of their fathers.”

So yes, its all still voluntary folks, and the elite know that they are not yet in trouble with YHWH (until we repent and ask Father for help with them), as we ourselves allowed ourselves to ignore Father's law and “contract” with them, thus breaking YHWH's covenant ourselves!

So now the years of gentle to stern warning must make way to wrath. There's no way to stop it, it seems. Scripture and all it's prophecy has been played out to the last scene and is now set, obediently holding back all but it's deep rumbling noise and it's whispering pent-up steam vents of readiness, sitting poised like a massive, snorting coal-fired locomotive, ominously awaiting the hard push of the throttle for the greatest run of it's life barrelling right through your town! The wrath we see coming at us seems to be swelling ever so slowly, perhaps even pausing here and there, as it's cloaked power teases us to sometimes think it might be retreating, while incrementally growing to a terrifying crescendo here, where this is surely the time where the heavenly hosts are aghast in silence (the seventh seal; rev. 8:1), as they await the six men with destroying weapons (Eze. 9:1-6; Rev. 16) to fulfill their ordered task on the lukewarm and the impenitent.

Such fulfilling of prophecy is now all but history to each near-extinct but faithful of us here or there who, even in our afflictions and persecutions of having broken our ties with the beast, stand excitedly in awe of Father's perfectly predicted wrath, knowing now more than ever, that this Bible and its thousands of years of delicately delivered offerings of both love and warning, is impeccably accurate and fully justified in the coming sentence that is now not just written, but now decreed, to come upon all who rebelled against it's Author's disciplined love for mankind. I now ask: How much more an offense was it of both the rebellious and the professing lukewarm towards this gracious Host, when the whole package had even been graciously offered with everything but gift-wrapping to each and every one of these ungrateful, undisciplined people! Yes, the world's greatest offer of rescue from this wicked world, even offered as if a gold crown on a silver platter, was beautifully planned to even teach us a fullness and peace of that trust with all perfection through the loving, sacrificial ambassadorship of His only begotten Son, Yeshua.

Sadly, the world also rejected the Messiah's delivery of Father's ways of love as well, and today still rejects, ousts, and even crucifies His true character, His Law, His Provisions, His Wisdom, His trustworthiness, His lovingkindness, and even His last remaining serious teachers along with Him, thus forever killing the real Messiah that said, “keep my commandments”, doing so in a spiritual crucifix-like effigy in practically every creature-worshiping (ref. Rom. 1:25) congregation around the globe, be it mega or tiny. These inhospitable souls then do little more than sing around their modern golden calves and then have the audacity to blame Him and His absence in their lives for why things are getting so bad, arrogantly adding sin to sin.

Messiah had spent many lonely years, standing at their very church doors knocking, even after they had all kicked him out in the cold, preferring dozens of unbiblical “deals” with the devil and his clever tyrant buddies. Yet it is per the timing and instruction of the Father, that His Son now no longer elusively searches out men's hearts with candles (Zeph. 1:12) as a thief in the night, because they are all either being marked or are already marked, and... according to their own thoughts and deeds (meaning forehead and hand), where now, having discreetly judged all hearts and thus having permanently marked and designated all souls (according to either kingdom of the two that each heart had put their actual trust in), then puts on His kingly robe, mounts His majestic white horse (taking the reigns as gospel messenger in a most radiant glory this time), comes out of His quiet role as unseen “night court judge” and arrives for all to see with a loud cry wielding a two-edged sword. He then must begin carrying out the judgment process upon them that had hurt “the least of these” of His true sheep. He has come to separate His little ones from the wolves, the wheat from the chaff, and the righteous from the wicked.

So yes, there's a wrath coming, the likes of which this earth could have never imagined. Just as in the days of Noe (Matt. 24:37), many are going to be taken away in the flood (v. 39) of YHWH's anger. Many will be found unworthy of gaining Yeshua's scepter of acceptance into His kingdom in that day (Matt. 7:21-23). The wicked must be consumed away before His faithful saints can cross our time's Jordan (Joshua 5:6) into the long-foretold, all-generations reward of an everlasting ecclesiastic land of milk and honey, where this of course will be the time foretold when the saints shall inherit the kingdoms of the earth.

Those who refused to partake in her sins (Rev. 18:4) and/or had come out from among our time's golden calf 'sin-fest' will be spared the carnage of the feast prepared for the fowls of the air (demons from the evil spirit realm [luciferian/Illuminati-based mind control]; etc. ref. Rev. 19:17); allowing satan and his demonic agents to feast upon [and take permanent eternal claim to] what is left of those who were “willfully ignorant” and had thereby been granted the “strong delusion” they had so desired to hold on to with a death grip in their lack of faith.

From the beginning in the garden, the trial determined for mankind has always been to choose between a worship of either the Creator or the creation. Those found joined to the creation worshipers (idolaters) shall fall by the sword (Isa. 13:15). This will include all varieties of creation worshipers, from satanists, to humanists, and to even the most gentle “mother nature” enthusiasts who (“innocently” according to the lost) think that they are somehow still doing a good thing to place animal admiration above any admiration of the Father or His law (a law of love that was, by the way, ironically originally designed to teach us to be responsibly kind to those creatures anyway).

Those who have been baptized for satan (having been “sold” by themselves or by parents) in beast waters (the economic slave trade system) whereby they publicly “signed” (voluntarily “marked” their own enslavement proclamation by one's own mind and/or hand; or who voluntarily remain in acceptance of this status, whereby they willingly accept or “receive” such an mark) themselves into an acceptance of their satanic overlord's ownership, doctrine, programs of privilege, aid, and/or academic social training (which is now satan's religious seminary of secularism) shall simply be found in satan's jurisdiction and thereby delivered up and given over to satan for destruction (be they slave or master), beginning with the professing but card-carrying [“marked”] hypocrites (Eze. 9:6; 1 Peter 4:17) who have called themselves by the Father's name but had also accepted and/or embraced and/or agreed to and/or by act had followed [forehead and/or hand] the unbiblical edicts, worship schedule, oppressions, or moral perversions of Caesar. (Isa. 33:14; Rev. 13:16,17; 14:9-11; 19:20)

But (on the other hand) those who will heed the call to all forms of purity (including territorial and jurisdictional) BEFORE that decree goeth forth, having wisely refrained from becoming a recipient of any beast adhesion contracts, or had fully cast away any previously discovered mark(s) of the beast connected to their name, or had not worshiped the image of that beast, they shall reign with the Savior a thousand years (Rev. 20:4). They are the elect. They are the wise of Daniel 12:10, They are those who may be “hid in the great day of YHWH's anger” (Zeph. 2:3), where, just as it was in the days of [Noah], the decision of the heart must come of a pure heart and BEFORE the rain of terror begins, not after. This is clearly because after it begins, what fool would not then choose the Father's rescue, but afterwards cannot be rewarded at such a point being that it is now no longer an act of faith? (“The just shall live by faith, but if any man draw back [doubting and distrusting Him when worldly comforts look secure and promising], my soul shall have no pleasure in him.” Hebr. 10:38; No folks, We are “saved by Grace through Faith”, not of works, cash, or social security promises. ref. Eph. 2:8) It is the responsible and caring, loving soul who will step out far away from this oppressive system for his fellow man by faith, fearful not of the tyrant, but of the wrath of a saint-protecting YHWH, and well before they are decreed to be found “filthy still”, where we could instead see a wonderful new light in the darkness for those few of us who stood in the disciplines of Father's pure instruction of love:

Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but YHWH shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

Isaiah 60:1-3

And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain (Kingdom) of YHWH's house shall be established in the top of the mountains (as the headstone of all governmental law), and shall be exalted above the hills (any and all lower law systems); and all nations shall flow unto it.

And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of YHWH, to the house of the God (authority) of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths:

for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of YHWH from Jerusalem (a coming Sacred global [non-geographic] capital city).

And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of YHWH.

Isaiah 2:2-5

*when truth prevails, love is the reward,
dwaine*
